

Parents, schools, clergy & community groups need as much support as possible in providing youth experiences to develop character and skills to manage their choices in a turbulent world.

Camp CHOICE “Game of Life” Adventures© is an exciting resource to help youth:

- ⇒ understand their identity & the diverse world around them
- ⇒ understand the responsibilities & economics of independence
- ⇒ deal with trauma & avoid drama
- ⇒ manage emotions & conflict, including bullying
- ⇒ build resilience to cope with future challenges

Camp CHOICE “Game of Life” Adventures© are adult life simulations, for middle & high school aged youth, designed to help them learn to utilize choices as fuel for success. Students learn valuable life lessons, all while playing a fun & interactive game moving through copper, gold or platinum status’.
